Eighteen vigorous sons of the deser braved the dangers of the wilds between the Oasis of Salt Lake and the sacred city of Merca Wednesday evening, join ing the caravan of El Kalah temple in the first semi-annual ceremonial session for the year 1911.

It was a strenuous journey, but one whose hardships throughout the starry whose hardships throughout the starry night were forgotten, or recalled only to be held sacred, as the dawn found the voyagers safely and comfortably arrived within the cooling shade of the coccanut palms between the Zem Zem wells. Yet it was a joyous trip, enjoyed at times by the novices themselves, and it was a thoroughly satisfied class which eventually was invited to the banquet board. Class of Novices

BINGHAM MINER FOUND IN DYING CONDITION

Philip Maloche of Bingham was found at the foot of the stairs leading up to the Salvation army headquarters on Orpheum avenue a little after midnight last night. The man had evidently just had a hemorrhage of the lungs and breathed his last soon after he was found. Miners' consumption was so evident that an inquest was not regarded necessary and the body was turned over to the O'Donnell undertaking firm.

John Ryan, who works next door, was the figst to find the dying miner and he summoned the manager of the place and the police. There were several letters in the man's pocket, one of these being from Anna Moriot of 112 Pine street. Leadville, Colo., and the other from H. Parker of Salida, Colo. An effort will be made to locate relatives or friends.

AFTER NINE YEARS OF SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS IN SALT LAKE, The

Mercantile Installment Co. Is Going Out of Business

Only 15 Days in Which to Close Out

This announcement will come as a surprise to our many friends in Salt Lake, but owing to the ill health of our manager, Mr. J. Reinshreiber, we are going to close out our entire business. This is the original credit clothing house of Salt Lake. We have been established since 1902 and in that time have opened accounts with more than 5000 people. We have never yet had a sale as our business has been conducted along legitimate lines and we have handled only such goods as could be sold in season at legitimate prices. But now we are confronted with a condition that makes it necessary to close out our entire stock immediately. This action was not expected when we ordered our spring stocks and we find our store filled to overflowing with spring clothing. But health is dearer to a man than money and rather than sacrifice health, the profits on the goods must go.

FIFTEEN DAYS IS THE TIME LIMIT AND ALL GOODS MUST BE SOLD IN THAT TIME. We have no small furnishing goods to offer as "bait." We carry only clothing and shoes for men and women and the prices we give must speak for themselves. BUY AT 40c TO 50c ON THE DOLLAR WHILE THE STOCK LASTS.
